WELCOME LETTER EXAMPLE

Mr./Mrs. Name:

Hello! Welcome to the unit name or (unit mascot)! My name is _____ and I am a spouse at the Unit Name as well. I am so happy to have you and yours here with us.

I want you to know that the unit name or (unit mascot) families are all in this together and that the other spouses and I are here to chat, to listen, to sympathize, to laugh, and, most importantly, to support one another. Some of us have been around the USMC for a while, and some of us are just getting started. Either way, we are a team. Because the USMC life is so unique and, yes, sometimes challenging, it is really important to stay connected. No one should have to navigate this life alone.

The unit mascot spouses have a lot of fun social events planned, and I would love for you to be part of it all. I've attached a link to a Google Form requesting your contact information. I invite you to fill it out so that we can stay in touch.

There are so many interesting spouses out there, just like you, with varied interests, ideas, experiences, and talents, and we are all stronger when we stick together!

In my experience the absolute best parts of this crazy life have been the people I have met and the friendships I have made along the way. Please don't hesitate to contact me if I can assist you during your time here. I am happy to meet you for a cup of coffee or just provide a listening ear. I look forward to getting to know you!

Best regards,
